

5. STATUS-QUO VIA 166 YEARS OLD LAWS

OUR ROGUE POLITICIANS & SCOUNDREL ELITE IS KEEPING THE CURRENT STATUS-QUO SINCE 1947 VIA 166
YEARS OLD LAWS

Since 79 years our assemblies / parliament are just making fool of the whole nation. Increase in their OWN salaries and perks is their only motto – NOT serving the poor nation.

They have made flimsy laws on women, children, human development, social benefits, finance schemes like Benazir Income Support, MNA's 'ISTEHQAQ' etc.

BUT have the MNAs ever thought of making NEW CrPC & PPC, NEW POLICE ACT, NEW EVIDENCE ACT, NEW CPC, NEW POLICE RULES, and NEW PPC to cater for the DEMANDS of the time like Developed Nations – Never!

“...NOT WRITTEN in the Constitution of Pakistan that the judiciary must only work with the Pakistan Penal Code (PPC) of 1860 or the Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC) of 1898. The Constitution does not name or mandate specific colonial-era codes”;

GLOBAL POLITICAL REVIEW of June 2024 is referred.

Then Why [Pakistan's] Judiciary Uses PPC and CrPC of....

Only because under Article 268 of the 1973 Constitution, all existing laws—including the PPC and CrPC inherited from British India—remained in force after independence until altered, repealed, or amended by the Parliament. The said colonial law-codes are ordinary legislative acts passed by the then legislature, nothing special it were.

Parliamentary Power: The Parliament of Pakistan has the full constitutional power to amend, update, or completely replace these codes with new legislation whenever it opts; see full details on WIKIPEDIA pages.

Because the bureaucrats of M/O Law & Justice AND [mostly] CORRUPT High Courts & Supreme Court judges earn millions daily through the 19th Century old LAWS mentioned above.

- That's why Pakistan's JUDICIARY is at No: 192 out of 199 nations.
- That's why no other country has trust on Pakistan's judicial system.
- That's why all IPP contracts contain clauses of ARBITRATION in London – NOT in Pakistan.

Referring to the daily EXPRESS TRIBUNE dated 29th
December 2024:

A failing police investigation system and outdated court testimony practices are contributing to a steady decline in conviction rates for serious criminal cases in the Rawalpindi [and generally in Pakistan]. Statistics revealed that:

"In full year of 2024, a total of 73,480 cases were heard across sessions, civil, and special courts. While decisions were issued in 27,189 cases, only 2,320 resulted in convictions. Alarming, 7,120 cases ended in acquittals due to poor investigations.

Additionally, 13,910 accused individuals absconded after being granted bail, attributed to incomplete charge sheets or alleged police collusion. Even in cases where convictions were secured, 98 per cent of those were overturned at the high court level, with the Supreme Court often dismissing the remainder.* About 43,000 cases were pending in Rawalpindi district courts on last day of the year."

From magistrate courts to the apex court, the overall conviction rate remained between a mere 2-4 per cent in year 2024. In rest of the preceding years, the statistics remained almost the same.

It's the TIME TO DO SOMETHING....

The Chief+COUNCIL should make sit the parliament to make out NEW Laws and change the colonial law books.

Parliamentarians can follow any good country's legal system as guidance – whether UK, Saudi Arabia, Iran, China, any EU country, Japan etc – they all work with best legal books according their own religion, culture and geography.

- Denmark, Norway, and Germany consistently rank at the top of the World Justice Project Rule of Law Index for overall criminal justice quality, fairness, and adherence to due process.

NO COUNTRY IN THE WORLD USES
19TH CENTURY LAW BOOKS
EXCEPT PAKISTAN

That's why in Pakistan, Police is corrupt, Judges are dishonest, LAWYERS' fraternity is filthy RICH – and people have NO FAITH IN INSTITUTIONS LIKE POLICE & JUDICIARY.
